20 I. Preliminary Statement

21 1. Plaintiff Bradley Schroeder, an individual, brings this action against M & I Bank,
22 FSB (a Federal Savings Bank), FOLKS & O'CONNOR, PLLC, and John and Jane
23 DOES 1 – 10 (collectively hereinafter "Defendants") as an affirmative action matter

25 to:

26 (a) Give effective Notice to Rescind and Cancel;

27 (b) Enforce Rescission;

28 (c) Reimburse all fees, charges, and costs paid in a consumer credit transaction

- 2 (d) Obtain reasonable attorney fees.
- 3 2. Plaintiff also seeks declaratory and injunctive relief to further restrain Defendants
- 4 under Arizona Revised Statutes Annotated (“ARS”) §§ 44-1521 et seq., common law
- 5 fraud, misrepresentation and deceit, against Defendants herein. All such Arizona state
- 6 law claims are properly asserted under this Court’s pendent or supplemental
- 7 jurisdiction.
- 8 3. The Defendants are proper parties to be sued for claims arising out of the
- 9 transaction when Defendants are attempting to enforce contractual obligations and the
- 10 Plaintiff is in an affirmative or defensive position asserting a rescission claim under
- 11 TILA; Reg. Z, asserting a basis to rescind under Reg. Z § 226.23(h)(2), Special rules for
- 12 foreclosures, when a foreclosure is underway, and other statutory relief under Arizona
- 13 statutes.
- 14 4. A rescission action may also be brought against an assignee, regardless of whether
- 15 the assignee is a “creditor” or whether the violation was apparent on the face of the
- 16 disclosure statement under 15 U.S.C. § 1641(c).

17 II. Parties

 14 transaction and are currently unknown to Plaintiff. Said entities will be joined upon 15 further discovery of their true nature and liability once these facts are known and 16 supported by competent evidence.

17 III. Jurisdiction/Venue

18 9. This Court has Jurisdiction in this proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331,
 19 pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1640(e) for TILA claims, and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367
 20 for supplemental jurisdiction of Plaintiffs' state law claims because these claims are so 21 related to the claims within the Court's original jurisdiction that they form part of the 22 same case or controversy under Article 3 of the United States Constitution. The 23 Court has authority to issue a declaratory judgment by virtue of 28 U.S.C. § 2201.
 24 Counts arising under contract, common law, and the law of conveyances in real
 25 property are properly asserted under this Court's pendent jurisdiction.

26 10. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 generally whereby 27 the real property and a substantial part of the events and claims, the subject of this 28 suit, are situated here in this District.

IV. Conditions Precedent

11. All conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred and, at minimum, TILA; Reg. Z violations may be asserted affirmatively and defensively as a recoupment or set-off pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1638 et seq. The mere loss of a statutory right to disclosure is an injury that gives the consumer standing for Article III purposes, DeMando v. Morris, 206 F.3d 1300 (9th Cir. 2000).
12. Plaintiff has standing as of the date of the contract and where the contract is a federally related mortgage transaction governed by TILA; Reg. Z.

V. Statement of Facts Material to the Transaction

13. In June 2007, Plaintiff applied for a conventional mortgage loan through a mortgage broker, Federal Mortgage Funding, (hereinafter the "Broker") acting as a lender's agent and representative.
14. The Broker assessed Plaintiff with a purported credit score average of approximately 770 and falsely induced the Plaintiff by verbal assurance of the best possible mortgage loan terms with a competitive interest rate.
15. The original application, copy attached hereto as EXHIBIT 1, and federally related mortgage transaction at the root of this case (hereinafter the "Transaction") was thereafter, submitted to the Broker.
16. Upon receipt of the application, the Broker intentionally concealed material facts by failing to ever provide a Good Faith Estimate disclosing the actual settlement service cost to close the mortgage loan.
17. The Broker, thereafter, requested an appraisal while steering the Plaintiff to a lender who would pay the Broker a yield spread premium or commission outside of Closing.
18. Plaintiff's application related to this Transaction consolidated and refinanced previous mortgage loan transactions covering real property then and now the primary principal residence and home of the Plaintiff.
19. The mortgage loan consolidation and cash out was scheduled to close after the

1 Broker received the assessed property appraisal with documents signed on or about 2 August 31, 2007 (the "Closing").

3 20. M & I Bank paid the Broker a yield spread premium outside of Closing, a payment
4 to the Broker for increasing the loan interest to a rate above "par," which is a rate
5 higher than the rate at which M & I Bank would otherwise be willing to make the 6 loan.

7 21. The application, EXHIBIT 1, specifically stated the Plaintiff's "Base Employment
8 Income of $1.00" and Plaintiff provided nothing more than a verbally stated income
9 and no actual income verification.

10 22. At the purported Closing, Plaintiff entered into a mortgage loan Transaction with 11 M & I Bank and was provided with copies of various documents to include those 12 material to this case identified as EXHIBIT 2:

- 13 a. A Fixed/Adjustable Rate Note;
- 14 b. A Deed of Trust security instrument;
- 15 c. An Adjustable Rate Rider;
- 16 d. A Truth in Lending Disclosure Statement;
- 17 e. A HUD – 1 Settlement Statement;
- 18 f. Two Notices of Right to Cancel;

19 23. The HUD – 1 Settlement Statement, EXHIBIT 2, specifically identifies on Line
20 803, an appraisal fee to Luxe Appraisal Group of $695.00. Said appraisal was paid out
21 of the proceeds, or the "Amount Financed" at the Closing.

22 24. Appraisal fees, credit report fees, and fees for notarizing deeds, and other
23 documents may be excluded from Finance Charge fees under 15 U.S.C. § 1605(e)(4)- 24 (6); Reg. Z § 226.4(c)(7)(iii) provided the settlement service fees are bona fide and 25 reasonable.

26 25. Accordingly, a $695.00 appraisal fee charged to the Plaintiff from the net proceeds 27 is not bona fide and reasonable.

28 26. Albeit, the Transaction required Plaintiff to pay money arising out of a transaction

1 in which money, property, or goods and services were the subject thereof and the 2 same were primarily for personal, family and household purposes.

3 27. The Transaction and all relevant documents were verbally described to Plaintiff at 4 the Closing as a Consumer Credit Transaction.

5 28. The Transaction is a Closed-end Credit Transaction as that term is defined in Reg.
6 Z § 226.2(10) where a Deed of Trust security interest was retained in favor of M & I
7 Bank designating The Law Office of Rex C Anderson, PC as the Trustee.

8 29. The Transaction on the face of all documents is subject to all content requirements
9 set forth in 15 U.S.C. § 1635(a), and 15 U.S.C. § 1638; Reg. Z §§ 226.17 – 226.23.

10 30. The material documents specifically identified as Plaintiff's EXHIBIT 2 failed in 11 one or more material respects to disclose to the Plaintiff in a form and manner
12 required by applicable statute and regulation, the true nature and cost of this 13 Transaction.

14 31. The failure to accurately disclose a bona fide and reasonable appraisal charge and 15 settlement service fee varies by more than $100.00 and materially understates the 16 "Finance Charges" on the Truth in Lending Disclosure Statement, EXHIBIT 2.

17 32. Pursuant to Reg. Z § 226.23(h)(2), Special rules for foreclosures, Tolerance for Disclosures, 18 when a foreclosure is underway, the tolerance for Rescission is $35.00 for an 19 understated "Finance Charge" disclosure.

20 33. The failure to accurately and effectively disclose the Truth in Lending Disclosure
21 Statement is a failure to provide accurately a material disclosure as that term is defined
22 under 15 U.S.C. § 1602(u); Reg. Z § 226.23(a)(3) n48.

23 34. M & I Bank ratified this Transaction with an inaccurate, improper, and ineffective
24 disclosure of the Finance Charge amount in the Truth in Lending Disclosure 25 Statement.

26 35. M & I Bank knew, or should have known, that said appraisal settlement service
27 charge is extravagantly inflated and that no Good Faith Estimate of settlement service
28 charges was ever disclosed prior or at origination.

1 36. Plaintiff alleges that M & I Bank ratified this Transaction without verifiable
2 income and not based upon Plaintiff's ability to pay the scheduled payments.
3 Accordingly, Plaintiff was unable to sustain payments within eight months of 4 Closing.

5 37. The Transaction is substantively and procedurally based upon the asset, Plaintiff's
6 home, and that such a lending policy is at minimum, overreaching and unfair.

7 38. Plaintiff read the documents provided at Closing and relied upon said
8 representations and the material TILA Disclosures Statement as being accurate, bona
9 fide, and reasonable. Otherwise, Plaintiff would have foregone the Transaction
10 completely, sought a better interest rate and reasonable settlement service charges.

11 39. Nevertheless, Plaintiff now exercises his continuing right to rescind the 12 Transaction as a defense against the non-judicial foreclosure as a claim in recoupment
13 and set-off due to the foregoing material disclosure failures.

14 40. Plaintiff's continuing right to rescind the Transaction is statutorily extended for 15 three years under 15 U.S.C. § 1635(f) when M & I Bank failed to deliver, clear and 16 conspicuously, the foregoing material disclosures described herein.

17 41. The TILA Disclosure Statement and material omissions imposed by M & I Bank
18 induces confusion as to source and sponsorship with respect to services, finance
19 charges, fees and applicable statutes. The disclosures and lack thereof are 20 intentionally unfair and deceptive.

21 42. A controversy has arisen due to M & I Bank's failure to provide accurate material
22 disclosures so that Plaintiff may tender any balance and extinguish the Transaction by 23 operation of law.

24 43. The foregoing acts and material omissions of M & I Bank were undertaken 25 willfully, persistently, intentionally, knowingly, and/or in gross or reckless disregard of 26 the Plaintiff's disclosure rights.

27 VI. Claims for Relief

28 Count 1 – Rescission under TILA; Reg. Z Against All Defendants

1 44. Plaintiff incorporates each paragraph set forth above as if fully stated herein.

2 45. As a result of Defendants failure to provide accurate material disclosures correctly
3 as described above, Plaintiff is entitled and has exercised his right of rescission of the 4 Transaction.

5 46. Rescission of the Transaction extinguishes any liability Plaintiff has to Defendants
6 for finance or other charges arising from the Transaction.

7 47. Defendants have a fiduciary duty and obligation to perform upon this notice of 8 rescission by canceling this specific Transaction as well as any enforcement thereof.
9 Accordingly, any alleged security instrument is void and unenforceable under 15
10 U.S.C. § 1635(b).

11 48. Defendants have twenty-days (20) to refund or credit the alleged account all 12 monies paid and to void the security interest, or seek judicial guidance.

13 49. Defendants performance is a condition precedent to Plaintiff's duty to tender and 14 failure to lawfully respond gives rise to statutory and actual damages under 15 U.S.C. § 15 1640.

16 50. Any further acts to enforce an invalid security instrument and impose finance
17 charges and fees are wrongful, improper, and a serious breach of fiduciary duty
18 associated with Defendants obligations. Such acts violate TILA; Reg. Z, the Real 19 Estate Settlement Procedures Act, (codified at 12 U.S.C. § 2605), and are contrary to 20 the explicit statutory requirements and contract between the parties.

21 51. Defendants' acts entitle Plaintiff to statutory and actual relief, orders enforcing 22 rescission, and a reasonable attorney fees.

23 Count 2 – TILA; Reg. Z Against M & I Bank

24 52. The original payee of the note and beneficiary of all other documents at a
25 purported closing with M & I Bank acted in contravention of TILA 15 U.S.C. § 1601
26 et seq. and Reg. Z in the following particulars, each and all of which may also be 27 asserted affirmatively and defensively by Plaintiff as a result.

28 53. The TILA Disclosure Statement, and all documents provided to Plaintiff in

1 conjunction with this consumer credit transaction violated the requirements of Truth
2 in Lending and Regulation Z in the following other respects:

- 3 a. By failing to provide all required disclosures prior to consummation of the 4 transaction in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1638(b); Reg. Z § 226.17(b);
- 5 b. By failing to make required disclosures 'clearly and conspicuously' in writing in 6 violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1632(a); Reg. Z § 226.17(a)(1);
- 7 c. By failing to include in the Finance Charge certain charges imposed by M & I
8 Bank payable by Plaintiff incident to the extension of credit as required by 15
9 U.S.C. § 1605 and Reg. Z § 226.4, thus improperly disclosing the finance
10 charge in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1638(a)(3) and Reg. Z § 226.18(d)
- 11 d. By failing to accurately and effectively disclose the TILA Disclosure Statement
12 in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1602(u); Reg. Z § 226.23(a)(3)

13 54. Said acts entitle Plaintiff to statutory and actual relief, and a reasonable attorney 14 fee.

15 Count 3 – Arizona Revised Statutes §§ 44-1521 *et seq.

16 55. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by reference Counts 1, 2, and every 17 allegation set forth above.

18 56. Plaintiff brings this action as a private attorney general acting on his own behalf,
19 pursuant to ARS §§ 44-1521 et seq., (the Arizona Consumer Fraud Act or "ACFA").

20 57. Plaintiff is acting in this capacity to remedy the ongoing unlawful, unfair and 21 fraudulent business practices alleged herein, and to seek injunctive relief and 22 restitution on his own behalf as being affected thereby.

23 58. The foregoing acts and omissions of the Defendants affect inclusively trade and 24 commerce, and affect merchandise as this term is defined under ARS §§ 44-1521 et 25 seq.

26 59. The ACFA defines unfair competition to include any unlawful, unfair, or 27 fraudulent business act or practice and provides that a court may order injunctive
28 relief and restitution to affected parties as a remedy for any violations of the ACFA.

1 60. Beginning on or before the dates indicated related to the Transaction and at all
2 times relevant herein, Defendants and the DOE Defendants have committed acts of 3 unfair competition proscribed by the ACFA including the practices alleged herein
4 against Plaintiff.

5 61. Prior to the filing of the complaint in this action, and continuing thereafter,
6 Defendants have systematically violated the provisions of TILA; Reg. Z, the 7 Transaction, the contract between the parties, and to such extent as to induce 8 confusion of source, sponsorship of services, finance charges, fees and applicable
9 disclosure statutes against Plaintiff.

10 62. These violations are and were a matter of Defendants' standard corporate policy,
11 and constitute a consistent pattern and practice of unlawful corporate behavior.

12 63. The business acts and practices of Defendants, as hereinabove alleged, constitute 13 "unlawful" business practices under ACFA in that, for the reasons set forth above, 14 said acts and practices violate the provisions of TILA; Reg. Z, the Transaction and 15 contract between the parties.

16 64. The business acts and practices of Defendants, as hereinabove alleged, constitute 17 "unfair" business practices under ACFA in that said acts and practices offend public
18 policy and are substantially injurious to the Plaintiff and all consumers. Said acts and 19 practices have no utility that outweighs their substantial harm to the Plaintiff,
20 consumers, and potential homeowners.

21 65. In the course of this Transaction, each Defendant made one or more 22 misrepresentations and/or failed to make accurate representations and/or failed to 23 provide material information about the Transaction as set forth more fully above.

24 66. Specifically Defendants processed and ratified the Transaction, substantially
25 amended material disclosures under TILA, failed to lawfully and effectively provide a
26 TILA Disclosure Statement, failed to provide a Good Faith Estimate, failed to comply
27 with the contract between the parties, and failed to comply with statutory good faith 28 and fair dealing.

1 67. Said misrepresentations and failure to make accurate representations were made
2 knowingly or with reason to know that Plaintiff would rely thereon.

3 68. Said misrepresentations and failure to make accurate representations were material
4 to the Transaction from origination to present.

5 69. Said misrepresentations and failure to make accurate representations were made
6 with intent and the Plaintiff relied thereon by seeking legal counsel and filing this 7 claim.

8 70. Plaintiff did reasonably rely as specified in these factual allegations.

9 71. Plaintiff was thereby damaged and has a substantial ascertainable loss.

10 72. The business acts and practices of Defendants, as hereinabove alleged, constitute 11 "fraudulent" business practices under ACFA in that said acts and practices are 12 deceptive to the public and affected consumers as to their legal rights and obligations, 13 and by use of such deception, falsifying documents and concealment, may preclude 14 consumers from exercising legal rights to which they are entitled.

15 73. The unlawful, unfair and fraudulent business acts and practices of Defendants 16 described herein present a continuing threat to members of the general public and the 17 Plaintiff in that Defendants and the DOE Defendants are currently engaging in such 18 acts and practices, and will persist and continue to do so unless and until an injunction
19 is issued by this Court.

20 74. Pursuant to the ACFA Plaintiff seeks an order enjoining Defendants from 21 engaging in the acts and practices as hereinabove alleged, and ordering that 22 Defendants credit the Transaction and provide appropriate restitution to the Plaintiff.

23 75. Plaintiff seeks recovery of attorneys' fees, costs and expenses incurred in the filing
24 and prosecution of this action pursuant to the ACFA and any other applicable law.

25 VII. Jury Trial Demand

26 Pursuant to the seventh amendment to the Constitution of the United States of 27 America, Plaintiff is entitled to, and hereby demands, a trial by jury.

28 VIII. Prayer for Relief

1 WHEREFORE, as a result of the violations of TILA; Reg. Z, pursuant to 15
2 U.S.C. §§ 1635, 1602(u), 1640(a), and the ACFA, Plaintiff prays for judgment against 3 Defendants as follows:

- 4 1. Rescission of this transaction;
- 5 2. Termination of any security interest in Plaintiff's property created under the 6 transaction;
- 7 3. Return of any money or property given by the Plaintiff to anyone, including 8 all Defendants, in connection with this transaction;
- 9 4. Statutory damages of no less than $2,000 for the disclosure violations as 10 provided under 15 U.S.C. § 1640;
- 11 5. Statutory damages of $2,000 if Defendants fail to respond properly to 12 Plaintiff's valid rescission notice;
- 13 6. Statutory damages as provided by state law and the ACFA;
- 14 7. Enjoin Defendants during the pendency of this action, and permanently 15 thereafter, from instituting, prosecuting, or maintaining a proceeding on the 16 Plaintiff's Property, from recording any deeds or mortgages regarding the Property
17 except, a lawful release of lien, and from otherwise taking any steps to deprive 18 Plaintiff's ownership of the Property;
- 19 8. Order that, if Defendants fail to further respond lawfully to Plaintiff's valid
20 notice of rescission, Plaintiff has no duty to tender, but in the alternative, if tender
21 is required, determine the amount of the tender obligation in light of Plaintiff's
22 claims, and order Defendants to accept tender on reasonable terms and over a 23 reasonable period of time;
- 24 9. Reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit;
- 25 10. Actual damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- 26 11. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
